PART I

1. Declarations of Interest

Peter Iveson was appointed to preside over the meeting.

(Peter Iveson on the Chair)

Councillor Andrew Rowles declared an interest in Agenda Items 4 and 5, and reported that, as his interest was personal he determined to remain to take part in the debate and vote on the matter.

2. Exclusion of Press and Public

RESOLVED that members of the press and public be excluded from the meeting for the under-mentioned item of business on the grounds that it involves the likely disclosure of exempt information as contained in Paragraphs(s) * of Part 1 of Schedule 12A of the Local Government Act 1972, as amended by the Local Government \(Access to Information\)\(Variation\) Order 2006. Rule 4.2 of the Constitution also refers.

3. PC5/11

(Councillor Andrew Rowles declared a personal interest in Agenda item 4 by virtue of the fact that he knew the subject member and the complainant. As his interest was personal he determined to take part in the debate and vote on the matter).

(Paragraph 1 – information relating to an individual)

The Panel considered this exempt report setting out the findings of an independent investigator into an alleged breach of the Code of Conduct by a Parish Councillor.

The complaint was received on the 06 October 2011 and had been considered by an Assessment Sub-Committee on the 19 October 2011. The external investigator had been appointed on 30 October 2012. The investigation had been started in December 2011 but had to be suspended pending the outcome of another investigation. The Deputy Monitoring Officer informed the Panel that as the incident took place prior to the implementation of the Localism Act it would be dealt with under the previous arrangements but under the revised structures.

The Advisory Panel was required to make a recommendation to the Standards Committee.

STANDARDS COMMITTEE ADVISORY PANEL - 14 NOVEMBER 2012 - MINUTES

The Advisory Panel concurred with the investigator's findings that the following paragraphs of the Code of Conduct had been breached:

- failing to treat others with respect;
- bringing your office into disrepute.

The Advisory Panel were however of the opinion that there was insufficient evidence to uphold the breach of the Code of Conduct in terms of bullying.

RESOLVED that the Panel would make the following recommendation to the Standards Committee:

1. The following paragraphs of the Code of Conduct had been breached:
 - failing to treat others with respect;
 - bringing your office into disrepute.
2. There was insufficient evidence to uphold the breach of the Code of Conduct in terms of bullying.
3. That an appropriate sanction might be that a formal press release be sanctioned by Standards Committee summarising the breach

4. PC7/11

(Councillor Andrew Rowles declared a personal interest in Agenda item 5 by virtue of the fact that he knew the subject member and the complainant. As his interest was personal he determined to take part in the debate and vote on the matter).
