Subject :

TENS Objection Notice

Walkabout 2nd December 2018 0400 hours to 0630 hours

To whom it may concern

I PC 5787 Simon Wheeler on behalf of the Chief Officer of Thames Valley Police wish to formally object to the proposed Temporary Events Notice (TENS) under Section 104 Licensing Act 2003 as we believe that allowing the premises to be used in accordance with the TEN will undermine the licensing objectives.

Thames Valley Police believe that due to the timing of this event and our recent concerns relating to incidents of crime and disorder at this premises, that this event will likely lead to further incidents of crime and disorder and therefore in turn undermine and not promote the licensing objectives.

The applied for Temporary Events Notice relates to the extension of the hours for the supply of alcohol and regulated entertainments from 0400 hours to 0630 hours, and an increase in the hours open to the public from 0430 hours in order to show the boxing match between Fury and Wilder.

Currently this premises is suffering from concerning levels of crime and disorder and incidents which often occur in the early hours of the morning and which are linked to drunkenness and increased levels of intoxication.

These concerns have recently been outlined to the Designated Premises Supervisor (DPS) via a formal performance process on 26th October 2018 as part of a stepped approach to resolve the high number of incidents at the premises. (See TVP 7)

Furthermore, and in order to provide the licensing sub-committee with more specific evidence in support of our concerns we have provided the following three exhibits relating to the premises:

TVP/1 is a list of occurrences for all incidents that have required the provision of a recordable crime/incident report for the period between 1st January 2017 and 17th November 2018. Occurrences are created by police officers or call centre staff whenever a crime is confirmed to have taken place, or an investigation is required to determine the nature of any complaint.

TVP/2 is a list of "URN" records which are created whenever the police receive an initial call for immediate or urgent service, or an officer makes a call to control room updating of a sporadic incident. In general terms URNS are created as initial logs prior to occurrences being created and as before the period of these records is between 1st January 2017 and 17th November 2018..

TVP/3 is a report produced from the Thames Valley Police "Amandus" database and is a summary of sources received by the licensing team. Entries contained within this record may have derived from occurrences, URN's, officer reports "Gen 40's" etc. This report is not necessarily a comprehensive list, however it is often reflective of many of the incidents that are listed within occurrences and URN's and regularly contains details of incidents that officers attend but that do not necessitate an official record ie URN or occurrence.

Thames Valley Police would like to draw the attention of the sub-committee to the volume of incidents that occur at this premises, many of which require some form of police action or call for service. We ask the sub-committee to consider the negative impact that this has on the provision of policing for the town centre but also the "knock on effect" created by drawing resources away from the West Berkshire area as a whole.

Finally we would like you to consider the times that these incidents are occurring and the undermining impact that they are having on the licensing objectives. As well as the tangible effect of creating numerous crimes, victims and offenders often spurred on by the consumption of alcohol over many hours till the early morning.

We now provide some specific examples relating to recent Temporary Events at this premises (two have been applied for this year).

On the 9th April 2018 a TEN was used to increase the premises hours in order to show a wrestling match, and on the 7th October 2018 a TEN was used in order to show a televised UFC Fight.

On the evening of 9th April 2018 an officer provided a report in relation to an assault which took place within the premises at 0350 hours.
The officer provided a Gen 40 report where they stated specifically that the victim had been at the premises to watch the Wrestling. (See TVP/4)

On the 7th October 2018 (the second and most recent TEN) we have details of two incidents occurring at the premises.

The first occurred at 0142 hours and led to a member of the door staff being punched in the head. Again at the time of producing his report the officer noted that a TEN had been applied for on this occasion. (See TVP/5)

The second incident on the 7th October 2018 occurred at 04:20 hours after a male had been ejected from the premises due to over intoxication. Eventually this male had to be arrested by officers whom had been stationed opposite the premises to oversee the extra hours applied for on the TEN. The officer who provided a statement at the time makes reference to how busy the night was and the fact it was difficult to provide transport for them and the detainee. (See TVP/6)

The current Secretary of States Section 182 Guidance states :-

7.32 The system of permitted temporary activities gives police and EHAs the opportunity to consider whether they should object to a TEN on the basis of any of the licensing objectives.

7.33 If the police or EHA believe that allowing the premises to be used in accordance with the TEN will undermine the licensing objectives, they must give the premises user and the licensing authority an objection notice. The objection notice must be given within the period of three working days following the day on which they received the TEN.

7.34 Where a standard TEN was given, the licensing authority must consider the objection at a hearing before a counter notice can be issued. At the hearing, the police, EHA and the premises user may make representations to the licensing authority. Following the hearing, the licensing authority may decide to impose conditions which already apply to an existing premises licence or club premises certificate at the venue, or issue a counter notice to prevent the event going ahead. As noted above, there is no scope for hearings in respect of late TENs and if objections are raised by the police or EHA in relation to a late TEN, the notice will be invalid and the event will not go ahead.

7.35 Such cases might arise because of concerns about the scale, location, timing of the event or concerns about public nuisance – even where the statutory limits on numbers are being observed. The premises user who signs the form is legally responsible for ensuring that the numbers present do not exceed the permitted limit at any one time. In cases where there is reason to doubt that the numbers will remain within the permitted limit the premises user should make clear what the nature of the event(s) is and how they will ensure that the permitted persons limit will not be exceeded. For example, where notices are being given for TENs simultaneously on adjacent plots of land it may be appropriate for door staff to be employed with counters. In each case it is important that licensing authorities and relevant persons can consider whether they believe that the premises user intends to exceed the 499 person limit, or will be unable to control or know whether the limit will be exceeded. Where the planned activities are likely to breach the statutory limits or undermine the licensing objectives, it is likely to be appropriate for the police or EHA to raise objections.

7.28 *If the licensing authority receives an objection notice from the police or EHA that is not withdrawn, it must (in the case of a standard TEN only) hold a hearing to consider the objection unless all parties agree that this is unnecessary. The licensing committee may decide to allow the licensable activities to go ahead as stated in the notice. If the notice is in connection with licensable activities at licensed premises, the licensing authority may also impose one or more of the existing licence conditions on the TEN (insofar as such conditions are not inconsistent with the event) if it considers that this is appropriate for the promotion of the licensing objectives. If the authority decides to impose conditions, it must give notice to the premises user which includes a statement of conditions (a “notice (statement of conditions) and provide a copy to each relevant party. Alternatively, it can decide that the event would undermine the licensing objectives and should not take place. In this case, the licensing authority must give a counter notice.

When considering the current secretary of states section 182 guidance above Thames Valley Police will say that we believe that it is necessary for us to object to this TENS application as it will undermine the licensing objectives. Our concerns surround the timings of the TEN which seeks to extend the hours for the sale of alcohol beyond those already allowed within the current premises licence, and we shall state that currently the number of incidents occurring at the premises are already disproportionate and fail to promote the licensing objectives. Therefore, any extension of hours shall only exacerbate the level to which the licensing objectives are already being undermined and likely lead to more incidents of crime and disorder, more victims and more arrests over and above those already apprehended at these premises.

Therefore in our submission we respectfully ask the Licensing Sub-Committee to consider the evidence supplied by Thames Valley Police in relation to our objection notice, and to issue a counter notice in response to this application as the only option available which shall ensure that the licening objectives are not likely to be undermined.

In closing Thames Valley Police would ask the sub-committee to consider the case of East Lindsey District council V Abu Hanif (t/a Zara’s restaurant) 2016 where it is stated:

“ The prevention of crime and disorder requires a prospective consideration of what is warranted in the public interest, having regard to the twin consideration of prevention and deterrence”.

Thames Valley Police submit that our objection notice supports the usage of the licensing objectives as a prospective tool to ensure that crime and disorder is prevented in relation to this current TEN application. (See TVP/8)

Statement of: Robert Hubbard-ClarkAge if under 18 (if over insert "over 18"): Over 18Occupation: Police Constable P853

This statement (consisting of3..... This statement relates to the arrest of [REDACTED] date of birth [REDACTED] on suspicion of Drunk and Disorderly in a Public Place Section 91 of Criminal Justice Act 1967.

I am the above named Police Constable stationed at Newbury Police Station Mill Lane Newbury.

On Saturday the 6th of October 2018 I was on duty in full uniform high vis jacket and custodian helmet working a tour of duty from 21:00hrs till 07:00hrs in crew PC 5648 COLLINGS on foot patrol covering the night time economy in Newbury town centre.

At around 04:00hrs I was stood across the road from The WALKABOUT Public House on CHEAP STREET NEWBURY by the bus stop when my attention was drawn to a young male being asked to leave the venue by door staff he around six foot tall slim build wearing a light coloured top and jeans.

I stood watching him for a few minutes he was swaying back and forth and was clearly drunk by his stance and his large hand and arm movements he was making.

I was fifteen yards away from him and the member of door staff and could hear the member of door staff politely explaining to the male that he had been removed due to how drunk he was and that he could not re-enter and that he needed to go home and come back in the morning and collect his jumper.

The male started to get aggressive and stood tall over the member of door staff he was leaning forwards towards them his face and attention fully on them and shouted "I DON'T GIVE A FUCK, I WANT MY JUMPER", and started to wave his arms around.

To stop the situation from escalating I crossed the road stood in-between them and asked the male for his name and said his name was [REDACTED]

I asked him to stop swearing to calm down and to move away from the entrance and talk to me.

[REDACTED] agreed and walked a little further away from the entrance I told him that he had been asked to leave due to how drunk he was and that he could come back in the morning to get his jumper and that he could not go back in and get the jumper in question.

[REDACTED] was very unsteady on his feet rocking back and forth he smelt very strongly of intoxicating liquor his eyes were blood shot he was very drunk.

[REDACTED] started off being hostile and aggressive and was shouting at me that he needed his jumper and repeated over and over and that it meant more to him than it did to me he was slurring his words. It was clear that [REDACTED] was past the ability of normal communication and was focused on getting his jumper back.

Continuation of Statement of Robert Hubbard-Clark

I told [REDACTED] a number of times that he was drunk that he would not be let back into the WALKABOUT and that he needed to go home and come back in the morning each time I told him that he could not get it back he shouted loudly "I DON'T GIVE A FUCK" which he repeated a number of times.

It was clear that [REDACTED] was not processing what I was telling him due to his intoxication he would not listen to reason.

I warned [REDACTED] that I will arrest him for Drunk and Disorderly if he carried on shouting and swearing that his language and aggressive behaviour will not be tolerated.

I asked [REDACTED] if he had a ticket for the jumper if he had booked it into the cloakroom or had he left it in the main bar area on a chair, I was trying my best to help him out however [REDACTED] could not remember and said that it was a black Primark jumper.

After my warning [REDACTED] stated to calm down he said that he was sorry and that he was being silly and that he would come back in the morning and get his jumper, [REDACTED] shook my hand and said that he would walk home.

I did not think anything further of matter however about twenty minutes later I was again stood across the road back at the bus stop and could see [REDACTED] walking with pace back towards the WALKABOUT from the direction of Newbury Train Station.

I suspected that [REDACTED] was going to try and re-enter the WALKABOUT to get this jumper and that there could be an altercation as he was very drunk and had been aggressive towards door staff not moments before hand.

I crossed the road and as [REDACTED] was level with me I asked him why he had come back and he said "I WANT MY JUMPER".

[REDACTED] was angry and said this in a direct and aggressive way, I told him again that door staff are aware of the jumper and that he still could not go in and get it and that he could not tell me where it was that I could not get anyone to go and find it and reminded him that he needed to go home.

[REDACTED] placed his arm around my shoulders and was again swaying around and lent forward and shouted very loudly "I DON'T GIVE A FUCK I WANT MY JUMPER, FUCK OFF" and started to get aggressive again.

I took hold of his arm and removed it from my shoulders as he again was getting aggressive this movement knocked my helmet off my head, I caught hold of it and placed it back on and took hold of [REDACTED] and at 04:20hrs I arrested him for Drunk and Disorderly and cautioned him [REDACTED], I restrained [REDACTED] and placed him in handcuffs behind his back.

I stated to him that his arrest to prevent injury to himself or another and to prevent any further offence to public decency and to allow a prompt and effective investigation into the offence.

By this time PC 5648 COLLINGS came and assisted me in keeping control of [REDACTED] as he was pulling away from me and was hard to control. [REDACTED] was now shouting again "FUCK OFF, FUCK OFF, I DON'T CARE, I WORK HARDER THAN YOU I WORK FOUR DAYS A WEEK FUCK OFF".

Witness Statement

Continuation of Statement of Robert Hubbard-Clark

It was a very busy night in the town centre and there was no Police transport to pick [REDACTED] up from the town to take him to custody so I and PC 5648 COLLINGS started to walk [REDACTED] back towards Newbury Police Station as he was being aggressive and abusive.

As we approached KFC on the approached to Newbury Police Station SGT 5595 CROFT came from the Police Station with a Police van and [REDACTED] was placed inside and transported back to Newbury Police.

[REDACTED] was crying one moment then shouting and being aggressive the next it was clear to me that he had lost all control of his behaviour due to his intoxication and acting in a disorderly manor and without my arrest he would carry on posing risk to himself and others in the town.

Once in the airlock of Newbury custody [REDACTED] started to settle down and reflected on his behaviour and said that he was sorry for being silly and that he had too much to drink and why do they sell alcohol.

It was a very busy night in custody with only one cell left in Newbury custody, Now [REDACTED] had started to be calm and posed no further risk to himself or the public and with him identifying his home address I spoke with the custody sergeant and explained why he had been arrested however I could de arrest him as he had calmed down and could take him home and leave him in care of his father and issue him with a fixed penalty notice for disorder.

I explained to [REDACTED] that I would take him and issue him with a penalty notice. On the drive back [REDACTED] gave his home address at [REDACTED] not [REDACTED] which was on his ID and was still being abusive by telling me that he did not give a fuck. I was close to re arresting him however he did calm down once back home.

At 05:15hrs I de arrested [REDACTED] and took him home. [REDACTED] was given a number of chances to go home on the night in question however he re attended the WALKABOUT after agreeing to go home, he had become abusive and aggressive with me twice and door staff.

Without his arrest I believe that that his behaviour would not stop from escalating to the point where I felt he could assault someone or be assaulted himself due to this conduct and behaviour. I was more than fair with [REDACTED] and tried to assist him the best I could.

Licensing Act 2003

Premises Licence Number: 014205

Premises: The Walkabout

Premises Address: 42 Cheap Street, Newbury, RG14 5BX

Dear Annie,

On Friday 26th October 2018 I visited your premises for a Tier 1 Meeting to ensure that you are complying with the above premises licence. During this visit I was assisted by PC Darryl SOWDEN. Also present was Matt SHIP from Bridgegate Security.

The purpose of Tier 1 Meeting is to allow Thames Valley Police to outline any specific concerns and allow you to put forward a plan to address these concerns.

The concerns that I wished to discuss were;

- 1) A general increase in the number of incidents arising from Walkabout in recent months
- 2) Two specific incidents involving use-of-force by Door Supervisors

I was impressed with the proactive measures that you have already put in place or are actively planning;

- 1) A new head Door Supervisor Tanya FAULDS is now in post
- 2) An increase in DS numbers – up from 5 to 6 as a minimum, 7 at closing time on a Friday, 8 at closing time on a Saturday and up to 10 during particularly busy events.
- 3) Purchase of new Body Worn Video (BWV) that are worn by two DS, and a desire to purchase more units.
- 4) One CCTV camera moved to provide better coverage, and an intention to obtain a further four cameras.
- 5) Repair to the rear gate to prevent unauthorised access through the back – although you are awaiting parts for the door.
- 6) One member of DS will be located at this rear door unless a significant fight is occurring
- 7) A pledge to instigate a random search policy – initially one in five customers will be searched – to deter drug use.

We also discussed what support Thames Valley Police could offer,

- 1) Where possible, during busy evenings Officers will be deployed outside or in close proximity to Walkabout with a view to deescalating incidents involving ejected customers.
- 2) I will chase the Business Improvement District to organise repair and testing of the Town Radio system – you raised a few examples where this system has let you down.
- 3) As discussed, we will be referring the incident involving Scott ALLAN to the SIA for their information and assessment.

I suggest that a further meeting is held in mid-December in order that we can review the actions you have implemented and assess their effectiveness.

I am optimistic that your actions will avoid the need to escalate to a Tier 2 meeting where we will ask you to specifically adopt a change in your licence conditions, or a Review of the premises licence if there is no further improvement.

I would like to thank you for the assistance and I look forward to working with you and your team in the future.

Yours Faithfully

1. MR JUSTICE JAY: This is an appeal by way of case stated from the decision of the Lincoln Magistrates' Court, District Judge Veits, given on 23 June 2015, whereby he allowed an appeal from the revocation of a premises licence by the licensing authority.
2. The appellant, the East Lindsey District Council, is the licensing authority. The Magistrates' Court in the usual way is not a party to these proceedings. The respondent, Mr Abu Hanif, trading as Zara's Restaurant and Takeaway, is the licence holder. He through a licensing consultant has submitted correspondence making various limited points, but indicating that he would not be taking any part in these proceedings.
3. The premises in question are Zara's Restaurant and Takeaway situated in North Summercoates on the Lincolnshire coast. They are licensed to sell alcohol ancillary to the supply of food. The restaurant is owned and managed by the licensee, Mr Hanif. On 29 April 2014, the premises were the subject of a joint visit by the police and immigration officers, and it was discovered that Mr Miah was working in the kitchen as a chef. It was common ground that Mr Miah had no current entitlement to remain in the UK, let alone to work. I was told that he arrived here illegally some years ago. Furthermore, it was also accepted by the respondent that he (i) employed Mr Miah without paperwork showing a right to work in the United Kingdom; (ii) paid Mr Miah cash in hand; (iii) paid Mr Miah less than the minimum wage; (iv) did not keep or maintain PAYE records; (v) purported to deduct tax from Mr Miah's salary; and (vi) did not account to HMRC for the tax deducted.
4. The police then applied for a review of the respondent's licence under section 51 of the Licensing Act 2003 and the matter came before the appellant's subcommittee on 30 June 2014. The subcommittee decided to revoke the respondent's licence. Its reasons were as follows:
5. "The subcommittee were satisfied that Mr Hanif did not take the appropriate checks of staff members having knowledge that there were problems previously at the other premises with overstayers, and that he continued to allow staff to work at Zara's restaurant without making appropriate checks.
6. The subcommittee were satisfied that Mr Hanif had not undertaken the relevant checks to ensure the employee concerned was eligible to work in the United Kingdom. Instead of not allowing employees to work if they had not provided the correct documentation he allowed them to work and paid cash in hand. With all this in mind the subcommittee were satisfied that Mr Hanif had knowingly employed person/s unlawfully in the United Kingdom.

7. The subcommittee considered the evidence by Mr Kheng on behalf of Mr Hanif and the Home Office section 182 Guidance to Licensing Authorities. The subcommittee were of the view that the premises licence should be revoked and that revocation was an appropriate step with a view to promoting the crime prevention licensing objective."
8. The respondent then appealed to the Magistrates' Court. There was a hearing on 27 March 2015, and on 23 June the district judge decided to allow the respondent's appeal. On 1 September 2015, the district judge determined the issue of costs and on 7 January 2016 he stated the case. The appeal to the district judge was de novo, but he accepted that he could only allow the appeal if the subcommittee's decision was "wrong", the burden being on the appellant before him to establish that.
9. Looking now at the stated case, the district judge noted that the respondent had received a civil penalty for employing an illegal worker under section 15 of the Immigration, Asylum and Nationality Act 2006. An immigration officer gave evidence to the effect that although by virtue of section 21 a criminal offence was committed, such proceedings were rarely brought. The district judge also noted that the police and the Council's licensing officer were no longer saying that the respondent was a serial offender, but a redacted report which was placed before the subcommittee still gave the impression that he "was in a much worse position than he actually was". As for the failure to pay the minimum wage, the district judge said this:
 - A. "In his evidence before me Mr Hanif accepted that he had not paid the minimum wage and this in itself can be a criminal offence. I found that this was not the main basis of the subcommittee's decision however and again there was no evidence that he had been reported for that alleged offence. It would appear from their reasons that the subcommittee used the evidence of paying cash in hand as justification for the finding that he knowingly employed Mr Miah. The prosecuting authority however appear to have taken a different view in offering the civil penalty."
10. The district judge's core reasoning was that no crime had been committed. As he put it:
 - A. "It appeared to me that no crime had been committed as a result of the visit to the premises in April of last year. A civil penalty had been imposed rather than prosecution for the section 21 offence and no other crime had been reported in relation to not paying the minimum wage."
11. In the district judge's view, the crime prevention objective was not engaged.
12. The district judge also criticised the subcommittee for adopting an inconsistent approach because in other similar cases only warnings were issued. Finally, he considered that the subcommittee may have been influenced by comments in the police report, leading them to believe that they were dealing with a serial offender.

13. At the conclusion of the stated case, the district judge posed two questions for my determination. I will address these at the end of my judgment.
14. I was taken by Mr Philip Kolvin QC to various provisions of the Licensing Act 2003 as amended. Under section 4(1) and (2) a licensing authority must carry out its licensing functions with a view to promoting the licensing objectives, which include "the prevention of crime and disorder". The provisions dealing with the review application brought by the police are contained in sections 51 and 52. Under section 52(3), the licensing authority (and on appeal the Magistrates' Court):
 - A. "... must, having regard to the application and any relevant representations, take such of the steps mentioned in subsection (4) (if any) as it considers appropriate for the promotion of the licensing objectives."
15. The epithet "appropriate" was introduced by amendment in 2011. Previously the test had been stricter. In my judgment, it imports by necessary implication the concepts of proportionality and relevance.
16. Mr Kolvin submitted that the district judge erred in a number of respects. First, he wrongly held that, given that criminal proceedings were never brought, the crime prevention objective (see section 4(2)) was not engaged. The statute is concerned with the prevention rather than the fact of crime. Secondly, and in any event, the interested party had committed criminal offences in relation to tax evasion, the employment of an illegal worker, and employing an individual at remuneration below the minimum wage. As for the employment of an illegal worker, Mr Kolvin accepted that this requires knowledge on the part of the employer, and he also accepted that it is not altogether clear whether the district judge found as a fact that the respondent possessed the requisite knowledge. However, the core question is the promotion of the licensing objectives, not the fact of anterior criminal activity, and in this regard a deterrence approach is appropriate.
17. Thirdly, Mr Kolvin submitted that there was no evidence of an inconsistent approach by the subcommittee in giving warnings in some cases because all cases turn on their own facts. Finally, Mr Kolvin submitted that there was no basis for the district judge's conclusion that the subcommittee may have been influenced by a suggestion that the respondent was a serial offender.
18. I accept Mr Kolvin's submissions. In my view the district judge clearly erred. The question was not whether the respondent had been found guilty of criminal offences before a relevant tribunal, but whether revocation of his licence was appropriate and proportionate in the light of the salient licensing objectives, namely the prevention of crime and disorder.

This requires a much broader approach to the issue than the mere identification of criminal convictions. It is in part retrospective, in as much as antecedent facts will usually impact on the statutory question, but importantly the prevention of crime and disorder requires a prospective consideration of what is warranted in the public interest, having regard to the twin considerations of prevention and deterrence. The district judge's erroneous analysis of the law precluded any proper consideration of that issue. In any event, I agree with Mr Kolvin that criminal convictions are not required.

19. To the extent that the analysis must be retrospective, the issue is whether, in the opinion of the relevant court seized of the appeal, criminal offences have been committed. In the instant case they clearly had been: in relation to tax evasion (see the common law offence of cheating the Revenue and the offence of fraudulent evasion of tax contrary to section 106A of the Taxes and Management Act 1970); and the employment of Mr Miah at remuneration below the minimum wage (see section 31 of the National Minimum Wage Act 1998). Moreover, given the evidence that Mr Miah never provided the relevant paperwork, notwithstanding apparent requests, the obvious inference to be drawn is that the respondent well knew that he could not, and that no tax code and National Insurance number had been issued. The corollary inference in my judgment is that the respondent well knew that Mr Miah could not provide the relevant paperwork because he was here illegally.
20. I also accept Mr Kolvin's submission that each case must turn on its own facts. As a matter of law, unless it could be said that some sort of estoppel or related abuse of process arose in the light of warnings given in other cases, the alleged inconsistent approach led nowhere. In my judgment, it could not be so said.
21. Finally, I agree with Mr Kolvin that there is nothing in the point that the subcommittee could have been misled about the interested party being a serial offender. The point that the subcommittee was making was the fact that the respondent had worked at premises where illegal workers were also employed meant that he should have been vigilant to the issue.
22. Thus the answer to the district judge's two questions are as follows:
 - A. Q. "Was I correct to conclude that the crime prevention objective was not engaged as no crimes had been proceeded with, the appellant only receiving a civil penalty?"
 - B. No.
 - C. Q. "Was I correct in concluding that the respondent had been inconsistent in similar decisions in not revoking the licence [sic]?"
 - D. No.

23. Having identified errors of law in the district judge's decision, the next issue which arises is whether I should remit this case for determination in the light of my ruling or whether I have sufficient material to decide the issue for myself. I should only adopt the latter course if satisfied that the issue is so obvious that no useful purpose would be served by remission. I am so satisfied. Having regard in particular to the twin requirements of prevention and deterrence, there was in my judgment only one answer to this case. The respondent exploited a vulnerable individual from his community by acting in plain, albeit covert, breach of the criminal law. In my view his licence should be revoked. Another way of putting the matter is that the district judge had no proper basis for overturning the subcommittee's assessment of the merits.
24. It follows in my judgment that the only conclusion open to the district judge in the present case was to uphold the revocation of the respondent's licence. This appeal must be allowed and the respondent's licence must be revoked.
25. MR KOLVIN: My Lord, I'm very grateful. Can I deal with the question of costs, both here and below.
26. MR JUSTICE JAY: Yes.
27. MR KOLVIN: Should I start with here.
28. MR JUSTICE JAY: Yes.
29. MR KOLVIN: My Lord, we would ask for the costs before this court. I just want to pray in aid four very brief points. The first is the result. The second is that the district judge's approach was expressly urged on him by the respondent's legal team. Thirdly, that the respondent was expressly urged to concede this appeal to stop costs running, he was given that opportunity at pages 42 and 43 of the bundle. Fourthly, perhaps a little bit tugging at the heart strings, but there's no reason why the Council Tax payers of East Lindsey should bear the cost of establishing what has been established in this court. So we would ask for the costs up here.
30. There is a schedule and the schedule has been served upon Mr Hanif by letter dated 16 March of 2016. I don't know whether the schedule has found its way to my Lord, if not I can hand up a copy.
31. MR JUSTICE JAY: It has.
32. MR KOLVIN: It has. My Lord, I can see that VAT has been added on. It doesn't need to be because of course the Council can retrieve the VAT, so my application is for £16,185. I know there's not a lot of explanation around my fee, but it was taken on a single fee for all work involved in relation to the case stated; advice, the skeleton argument and attendance today, so it's one single - -

33. MR JUSTICE JAY: What about your junior's fees?

34. MR KOLVIN: My learned junior is also my instructing solicitor, he wears two hats.

35. MR JUSTICE JAY: I see.

36. MR KOLVIN: He has his own firm which is Dadds LLP, and he is also a member of the bar, so although he has appeared as my junior, his fee is wrapped up in the solicitors' fees set out in the schedule.

37. MR JUSTICE JAY: Okay. What about the costs below?

38. MR KOLVIN: My Lord, I'm just trying to ascertain what the position is.

39. MR JUSTICE JAY: I thought there was no order for costs below.

40. MR KOLVIN: There was no order for costs below, that was on the basis that the appeal had been allowed. The situation in relation to costs of licensing appeals are set out in section 181 of the Act, which enables the court to make such order as it thinks fit. Normally when appeals are dismissed there is no real question about it, costs follow the event. When appeals are allowed, some further considerations come into play, which are expressed by the Master of the Rolls in a case which you may have come across called City of Bradford v Booth, which is the case where the Master of the Rolls said that local authorities shouldn't be put off from trying to make honest and reasonable decisions in the public interest. And so one has to take account additionally of the means of the parties and their conduct in relation to the dispute, but in this case of course the appeal has now been dismissed, and so we would say that the ordinary rule is that the costs should follow the event, the appeal having failed. I'm just trying to ascertain whether schedules were ever served below, in the light of the way the case came out. (Pause)

41. My Lord, I'm really sorry that we don't actually have the schedule here, apparently it was £15,000. If you were minded to order costs below the options are either I suppose to wait and we will have the thing emailed up, or to say, "Look, it was below, it's a little bit more complex, they should be assessed if not agreed."

42. MR JUSTICE JAY: This is going to wipe him out, isn't it?

43. MR KOLVIN: Well he has already said, I have to say, I'm just telling you frankly what I've been told this morning, that when the bundles and the schedules were served on him, he had clearly read them, but he said, "If you win in the High Court and get costs against me, then I'm just going to declare myself bankrupt." So there may well be a bit of football(?) about this, but nonetheless it was his appeal, his team raised a point which in retrospect was very surprising, and caused an awful lot of costs to be incurred.

44. MR JUSTICE JAY: Yes. Well I am going to assess the costs here in the round figure of £15,000.

45. MR KOLVIN: Thank you.

46. MR JUSTICE JAY: If there was a schedule, which you tell me there was, below, it is proportionate that I assess those costs rather than put you to the trouble of a detailed assessment, so if you could have that emailed to my clerk in due course, I will assess the costs below.

47. MR KOLVIN: Thank you, my Lord.

48. MR JUSTICE JAY: On the basis of that schedule.

49. MR KOLVIN: We're not trying to be too ambitious, but we would like to see what we can - -

50. MR JUSTICE JAY: I'll take a broad brush approach to that.

51. MR KOLVIN: Thank you.

52. My Lord, the only other thing to mention is that this isn't the only case which is kicking around the east of England where licensing subcommittees are being urged to take no action because there has been no prosecution in these immigration cases. Although I appreciate that this is hardly stellar law making, it's an application of pretty well established legal principles to the facts, I'm asking whether my Lord would be minded to certify this so that we can adduce the authority in other cases, because it's a clear statement of the law that there doesn't need to have been a prosecution. So with the practice direction in mind, would my Lord be minded to - -

53. MR JUSTICE JAY: Just remind me of the practice direction.

54. MR KOLVIN: Yes, can I hand it up?

55. MR JUSTICE JAY: Yes. (Handed)

56. MR KOLVIN: If Mr Hanif had come I wouldn't need to make the application. It's paragraph 6.1. The judgment has to clearly indicate that it purports to establish a new principle or extends the present law and that has to take the form of an express statement to that effect, and then 6.2 says what categories of judgment we're dealing with, which include applications attended by one party only.
57. So that's the situation we're in. In reality these judgments get around anyway, because we're dealing with administrative tribunals and not courts, but sometimes the point is taken, "Ah yes, but the court didn't certify".
58. MR JUSTICE JAY: But where's the new principle I've established?
59. MR KOLVIN: My Lord, what you have said clearly, which hasn't been said before, by dint of the fact that not many licensing cases reach the lofty heights of this building, is that there does not need to have been a prosecution in order for the crime to have - -
60. MR JUSTICE JAY: Oh, I see. Well that's so obvious it almost goes without saying, that's why it hasn't been said before.
61. MR KOLVIN: My Lord, it was obvious to everyone except the district judge, the appellant and other licensees in the east of England.
62. MR JUSTICE JAY: Okay.
63. In terms of the logistics, if you want a copy of the judgment, don't you have to pay for it?
64. MR KOLVIN: We may have to, and we would be obviously very pleased to do so.
65. MR JUSTICE JAY: Because I'm not sure that all judgments are, in the Administrative Court, they're not all transcribed and published.
66. MR KOLVIN: That is correct, and I have no doubt that my client would be - this isn't a matter about the costs of the judgment.
67. MR JUSTICE JAY: No, fortunately it doesn't cost that much. But I will give the certification. I have never been asked to do so before, I must confess.
68. MR KOLVIN: Yes.

69. MR JUSTICE JAY: Because these cases are referred to almost willy nilly, if they're available on Lawtel or wherever.
70. MR KOLVIN: Yes, they are.
71. MR JUSTICE JAY: Then they're just provided.
72. MR KOLVIN: They get into the textbooks and they - -
73. MR JUSTICE JAY: No- one objects.
74. MR KOLVIN: Yes. It has happened once before, in relation to the meaning of the Court of Appeal judgment in Hope and Glory, and Lindblom J, as he then was, was asked repeatedly would he certify in relation to the meaning of Hope and Glory, which is an important test, and he was pretty engaged in the practice direction. But since then that judgment, there's always an argument in court about whether it can be cited or not. The difference between licensing and some other fields of law is that very few cases reach here, so when they do, the judgments of High Court judges are gold dust.
75. MR JUSTICE JAY: Yes, well I'm happy to make the certification.
76. MR KOLVIN: Thank you very much indeed.
77. MR JUSTICE JAY: We wouldn't want this point to be taken again successfully.
78. MR KOLVIN: No.
79. MR JUSTICE JAY: Now as a matter of courtesy, is the judgment, once available, sent to the district judge, or is it something that I should do informally?
80. MR KOLVIN: I don't know, my Lord, what the normal practice is. I don't think that I have previously been on a legal team which has sent judgments, but we're very happy to undertake to do so.
81. MR JUSTICE JAY: Yes, I think if you're going to get a copy, obviously you're going to send it to the respondent - -
82. MR KOLVIN: Indeed.

83. MR JUSTICE JAY: - - so he can ingest it. I think you should send it to the district judge, just saying that the judge directed that out of courtesy he should see it.
84. MR KOLVIN: We're very happy to do that. Thank you very much indeed.
85. MR JUSTICE JAY: Thank you very much.
