Annex 3 - Conditions attached after a hearing by the licensing authority

1. CCTV cameras are to be in operation in the designated function room whilst it is in use by the public. All recordings are to be in colour and retained for not less than seven days.
2. Notices will be placed in prominent positions at the exits asking customers to leave quietly.
3. All staff will be trained on the requirements of the Licensing Act 2003 and the conditions of the licence when they are recruited, and updated as necessary. Records of this training are to be retained and made available for inspection upon request.
4. All staff will be trained in customer dispersal methods in order to encourage that people leaving or entering the premises do so in an orderly manner and not cause annoyance at nearby properties.
5. Whenever regulated activities as defined in sections E – Live Music, F – Recorded Music, and I – Provision of facilities for making music are taking place the licensee shall:-
  - a. Ensure that staff are trained in noise monitoring for public nuisance during events. All training in noise monitoring shall be recorded and made available for inspection upon request.
  - b. Ensure monitoring of the event with respect to public nuisance throughout the period of the activity every hour, with more frequent checks every 30 minutes after 2300hrs. Records of all monitoring should be recorded and available for inspection upon request.
  - c. Ensure that as a result of monitoring if the noise level is likely to cause a public nuisance then the volume and/or tone must be adjusted accordingly so as not to cause a public nuisance at nearby properties. If this not sufficient then the volume must be turned down or off with immediate effect in order to prevent public nuisance.
6. Recorded music OUTDOORS will only be permitted between 1200 and 2300 hours on the Fridays and Saturdays of the two May Bank Holiday weekends and the August Bank Holiday weekend, and between 1200 and 2200 hours on the Sundays of the two May Bank Holiday weekends and the August Bank Holiday weekend. No recorded music will be permitted out of doors on Mondays of the aforementioned weekends after 2100 hours.
7. All entertainment activities, particularly the outdoor activities as defined in Section F – Recorded Music shall be physically arranged to minimise the risk of noise nuisance at nearby properties.
