The Prevention of Crime and Disorder:

One of my Parents neighbours that live opposite where Sainsbury's are hoping to go on Friday asked a group of young adolescence teenagers to move away had their car vandalised when I have stayed here before that my car broken into and write off

Public Safety:
with Sainsbury's being granted if they are a alcohol license I only see more problems like this happening in Coombe Court

The Prevention of Public Nuisance:

beer bottles and cans are thrown in gardens and out on road in Coombe Court already with out the added problem of having a shop that sells alcohol on my Parents Door step and neighbours

The Protection of Children from Harm:

There will be more cars travelling to fast in the 20 miles a hour zone then there already is and at risk of the broken glass from bottles

I am worried what this proposed Supermarket will do to my Parents and elderly Neighbours because of the Nuisance of the Alcohol and added noise and risk of crime
