Key background documentation:

A central part of the action plan resulting from the National review post Winterbourne View was “to ensure that people with challenging behaviour only go into hospital if hospital care is genuinely the best option and only remain in hospital for as long as it remains the best option”. By June 2014 it was expected that all individuals should have been receiving personalised support and care in their community and that when hospital based care is necessary the aim should always be that of recovery, improvement and returning to the community as soon as feasible.

More recently CCGs have been urged to avoid reliance on inappropriate or over extended hospital placements and are requested to “work with providers of specialist services to ensure that CTPLD’s have the additional, intensive support they need to keep people out of hospital, including in crisis”.

The Berkshire Transforming Care Plan brings together work undertaken by a range of key stakeholders to articulate a proposed way forward to deliver high quality, needs led intervention to people with Learning Disabilities and/or ASD and/or Mental Health problems whose behaviour challenges others and services.

The TCPs are a national requirement aimed at transforming services for people of all ages with a learning disability and/or autism who display behaviour that challenges, including those with a mental health condition, in line with Building the Right Support – a national plan to develop community services and close inpatient facilities (NHS England, LGA, ADASS, 2015).
