Describe the steps you intend to take to promote the four licensing objectives:

a) General – all four licensing objectives (b, c, d and e) (please read guidance note 10)

To promote all four objectives, we will keep good management control and train staff to be aware of the premises licence and its requirements, particularly: no sales to under-age people, no drunken / disorderly behaviour, no violence, no drugs, and no harm to children. We will stick to our permitted operating hours. Practically, we will be helped by CCTV and our comprehensive hospitality IT system. We intend to operate an open management policy, in which all are invited to participate in and can learn from regular meetings, but will record formal staff training and maintain the usual records, such as incident books (including any refusals).

b) The prevention of crime and disorder

We will have CCTV monitoring the site. Staff training to ensure the premises are used in an orderly / respectful way, drunks are not served, and any criminal activity (e.g. drugs) is reported.

c) Public safety

Practical steps, particularly good lighting around the premises, safe and tested equipment / facilities, fire alarm system &c.

Management steps, particularly awareness of staff of environmental health requirements, performing ID checks &c.

d) The prevention of public nuisance

Requiring respectful use / orderliness from all users – staff, customers, delivery vehicles, collection / waste services – to reduce noise / nuisance / disturbance. We will minimise the late hours operation of the premises; in particular, we will not tip (but may put out) glass waste after 22:00, we will put up advisory “be polite” notices in both car parks and being conscious that the noise / volume of any entertainment (as and when it takes place within our licence permissions) should be kept at an appropriate level to the circumstances.

e) The protection of children from harm

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copy documents as set out above.
